(3:10 pm AK, 4:10 pm PT, 5:10 pm MT, 6:30 pm CT, 7:10 pm ET)

The goal of this session is to explore two issues. The first topic will be around supporting Native students by incorporating Native language and culture into educational systems at all levels of education, from early childhood to higher education. Panelists will discuss the characteristics of Native students in their systems, the ways that their systems incorporate Native language and culture, and the factors that support and hinder the health and well-being of Native children and youth. The second topic will be a discussion about the importance of early childhood programming serving children 0-5 in Native communities. Panelists will discuss programs like Head Start, childcare, pre-kindergarten, and home visiting and share results that have been shown to have positive impacts on child and family development, supporting increased child and family health, improved school readiness and academic achievement, and improved family economic self-sufficiency. Each panelist will provide 10 minutes of testimony, followed by a 5-minute opportunity for questions from the Commissioners. After all panelists have spoken, there will be a 10-minute period of general conversation and discussion with the full panel.

Friday, April 22nd – Regional Hearing

**All start times listed in Arizona Time (currently Pacific Time)*

Zoom Link <https://kearnswest.zoom.us/j/84997853622>

The public is welcome to attend and listen to the Regional Hearing. The dialogue will be between the panelists and the Commissioners only for the morning session.

8:00 am      Doors Open to the Public (30 min)

8:30 am      Navajo Nation Welcome (1 hour)
(7:30 am AK, 8:30 am PT, 9:30 am MT, 10:30 am CT, 11:30 am ET)

The Commission will provide remarks to the audience around Commission goals.

The goal of this session is to provide a general overview of the current issues faced by Native children and youth (both on reservations and in urban communities) in the region, covering all topics to be studied by the Commission. Speakers will highlight common systemic challenges and discuss programs and strategies that have been effective in tribal communities in the region (including trauma informed and culturally based strategies). Opening remarks:

- Phefelia Nez, First Lady of Navajo Nation
- Dottie Lizer, Second Lady of Navajo Nation
- Amber Kanazbah Crotty, Council Delegate, The Navajo Nation Council

9:30 am      Break (15 min)
(8:30 am AK, 9:30 am PT, 10:30 am MT, 11:30 am CT, 12:30 pm ET)

tribal collaboration, and building tribal capacity to prevent and respond to child abuse and neglect and related issues. Second, to discuss the efficacy of the juvenile justice system for Native children, youth and communities and the disproportionate rates of arrest, detention and incarceration among Native youth compared to non-Hispanic Whites. Research is generally agreed that a more behavioral health approach to juvenile delinquency is better for youth, especially in light of increasing mental health challenges, greater suicide risk, challenges accessing education, and feelings of isolation and disconnection from culture and community. Each panelist will provide 10 minutes of testimony, followed by a 5-minute opportunity for questions from the Commissioners. After all panelists have spoken, there will be a 10-minute period of general conversation and discussion with the full panel.

- Phefelia Nez, First Lady of Navajo Nation, Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Relatives Task Force
- Michael Henderson, Director of Criminal Investigation, Navajo Nation
- Crescentia Tso, MSW, Navajo Indian Child Welfare Act Program (NICWA), ICWA Unit Supervisor

11:30 am      Panel 4: Systems Innovations and Best Practices in Native Communities (1.5 hours)
(10:30 am AK, 11:30 am PT, 12:30 pm MT, 1:30 pm CT, 2:30 pm ET)

The goal of this session is to highlight cross-system models, innovations, and best practices to meet the needs of Native children in a seamless and coordinated way. Each panelist will provide 15 minutes of testimony, followed by a 5-minute opportunity for questions from the Commissioners. After all panelists have spoken, there will be a 15-minute period of general conversation and discussion with the full panel.

- Roxanne Gorman, Department Manager (TANF), Navajo Department for Self-Reliance
- Deannah Neswood-Gishey, Executive Director, Navajo Division of Social Services

Alyce Spotted Bear and Walter Soboleff Commission on Native Children

- Shawnell Damon, Navajo Area Indian Health Services

1:00 pm

Panel 5: Youth and Community Panel (2.5 hours)

(1:00 pm AK, 2:00 pm PT, 3:00 pm MT, 4:00 pm CT, 5:00 pm ET)

The goal of this session is to explore two issues. First, to provide an opportunity for youth from the region to provide a general overview of current issues faced by youth (both on reservations and in urban communities), covering all topics to be studied by the Commission. Second, the community session is open to everyone and offers people with diverse backgrounds a chance to express their views.

Opening remarks
