2:25 pm

Panel 1: Physical, Mental and Behavioral Health (1.5 hours)

(11:25 am AK, 12:25 pm PT, 1:25 pm MT, 2:25 pm CT, 3:25 pm ET)

The goal of this session is to increase the Commission's understanding of the systems of health services provision available for Native children in the region (including physical, behavioral, and mental health, and traditional and cultural services). Panelists will discuss the strengths, challenges, and opportunities for improvement within the current health system.

Each of three panelists will provide 15 minutes of testimony, followed by a 5-minute opportunity for questions from the Commissioners. After all panelists have spoken, there will be a 15-minute period for general conversation and discussion with the full panel.

Panel 2: Education and Early Childhood Development (1.5 hours)

(1:10 pm AK, 2:10 pm PT, 3:10 pm MT, 4:10 pm CT, 5:10 pm ET)

The goal of this session is to explore two issues. The first topic will be around supporting Native students by incorporating Native language and culture into educational systems at all levels of education, from early childhood to higher education. Panelists will discuss the characteristics of Native students in their systems, the ways that their systems incorporate Native language and culture, and the factors that support and hinder the health and well-being of Native children and youth. The second topic will be a discussion about the importance of early childhood programming serving children 0-5 in Native communities. Panelists will discuss programs like Head Start, childcare, pre-kindergarten, and home visiting and share results that have been shown to have positive impacts on child and family development, supporting increased child and family health, improved school readiness and academic achievement, and improved family economic self-sufficiency.

Each of three panelists will provide 15 minutes of testimony, followed by a 5-minute opportunity for questions from the Commissioners. After all panelists have spoken, there will be a 15-minute period for general conversation and discussion with the full panel.

Bismarck, ND

All start times listed in Central Time*

Zoom Link: <https://kearnswest.zoom.us/meeting/register/tZIsde2hrD4rGNL1Qxo4uFFDoxAH5zp23eR>

The public is welcome to attend and listen to the Regional Hearing. The dialogue will be between the panelists and the Commissioners only for the morning session.

8:00 am Doors Open to the Public (30 min)

8:30 am Tribal Welcome (1 hour)
(5:30 am AK, 6:30 am PT, 7:30 am MT, 8:30 am CT, 9:30 am ET)

The Commission will provide remarks to the audience around Commission goals.

The goal of this session is to provide a general overview of the current issues faced by Native children and youth (both on reservations and in urban communities) in the region, covering all topics to be studied by the Commission. Speakers will highlight common systemic challenges and discuss programs and strategies that have been effective in tribal communities in the region (including trauma informed and culturally based strategies).

Tribal Opening remarks

9:30 am Break (15 min)
(6:30 am AK, 7:30 am PT, 8:30 am MT, 9:30 am CT, 10:30 am ET)

9:45 am Panel 3: Child Welfare, Juvenile Justice, and Violence (1.5 hours)
(6:45 am AK, 7:45 am PT, 8:45 am MT, 9:45 am CT, 10:45 am ET)

The goal of this session is to explore two issues. First, to increase the Commission's understanding of issues around child welfare in Native communities in the region, including addressing jurisdictional issues related to the implementation of the Indian Child Welfare Act by improving state-local-tribal collaboration, and building tribal capacity to prevent and respond to child abuse and neglect and related issues. Second, to discuss the efficacy of the juvenile justice system for Native children, youth and communities and the disproportionate rates of arrest, detention and incarceration among Native youth compared to non-Hispanic Whites. Research is generally agreed that a more behavioral health approach to juvenile delinquency is better for youth, especially in light of increasing mental health challenges, greater suicide risk, challenges accessing education, and feelings of isolation and disconnection from culture and community.

Each of three panelists will provide 15 minutes of testimony, followed by a 5-minute opportunity for questions from the Commissioners. After all panelists have spoken, there will be a 15-minute period for general conversation and discussion with the full panel.
